(Note: Below is a copy of an email received on 9/10/06, from Jean Hundertmark, Lieutenant Governor Candidate.)

Ms. Wiegand,

Before Jean Hundertmark became a member of the Wisconsin Assembly, she already had more than two decades of experience as the owner of a small business (an A&W Restaurant in Clintonville, which she has operated since 1975 with her husband Bruce). She was a local leader in building the community's economy as well, and understands great businesses start at kitchen tables, in garages and basements of homes. Jean also understand the role of government is to encourage such business growth, not hinder it.

As Lt. Governor, Jean Hundertmark's focus will be on business and economic development. She is concerned about businesses of all sizes and configurations - she will take that concern with her to the administration. It is one of many reasons why Jean Hundertmark is endorsed by gubernatorial candidate Mark Green in this race.

Some of Jean Hundertmark's legislative initiatives with an emphasis on encouraging business development have included:

- Sponsored tax free health savings accounts and proposed making private health insurance 100% tax deductible
- Led the charge to pass the Job Creation Act – a regulatory reform package aimed at attracting businesses to Wisconsin and encouraging economic expansion
- Proposed legislation to cap higher education increases in tuition and fees at three percent annually
- Authored legislation that eliminated roadblocks to private investment in Wisconsin's businesses

I hope this answers your questions - and that you will vote for Jan Hundertmark in the Tuesday, Sept. 12 primary election.

Regards,
Chris Lato
